Check out the second page for a full explanation of the team competition that combines Glacier Trails and the Louise Riedel Memorial.

Glacier Trails and Louise Riedel Memorial are having a Team Competition

1. There are 4 members to a team. This competition based on the riders only, regardless of the horses being ridden/driven.
2. Teams must be declared at the Glacier Trails Ride. Sense “life is what happens when you have other things planned,” we are allowing up to 2 replacements of team members at Louise Riedel Memorial. However, only 4 awards per team will be given.
3. Each team of 4 must enter a minimum of 16 events over the two rides to be eligible for awards. (However, with three days of events at Glacier Trails and three days of events at Louise Riedel Memorial, a team could enter as many as 24 events.) The important thing is that your team has a minimum of 16 entries over the two “Rides.” Remember, any entry in any event counts, including Novice, and Ride & Tie.
4. Riders will be awarded 10 points for each event entered and started regardless of mileage. Placings will be awarded additional points as follows: 6th/1point, 5th/2points, 4th/3points, 3rd/4points, 2nd/5points, 1st/6points. Management will keep track of points and publish results between rides.
5. There will be three sets of 4 awards of awarded at the Louise Riedel Memorial Ride.
6. If you’ve lost a member from your team, get on the phone, or talk to people at a ride and get someone who is willing to enter 2 events at Louise Riedel Memorial to complete your team. The whole point of this team competition was to get people to enter more than one event at our rides.
